CHAMBER BUSINESS & RECREATION EXPO

May 4, 2019 the Macklin Chamber of Commerce had our 3rd annual Business Expo. After 2 years of having a “smaller scale” event we decided to expand to the Arena and make the event bigger and better. We would like to send out a huge thank you to all the vendors, expo committee, chamber volunteers and the general public for making this event a raging success. Thanks to all of you, we exceeded our expectations and were very pleased. Also thanks to our MP Rose Marie Falk for appearing and listening to citizens concerns. Please stay tuned for next years expo as we will strive to improve in any way we can.

Command Chief of the Royal Canadian Navy attends Sir Max Aitkin Annual Ceremonial Review

On Saturday May 25th, 2019 I had the honor of attending the Sir Max Aitkin Annual Ceremonial Review. The cadets walked in perfect cadence and followed instructions precisely as they were bellowed out by their flight commander. I watched in anticipation as awards were handed out to the cadets. I admired the thrill and excitement shown by these young adults as they were presented trophies to honor their accomplishments. The excitement might have been triggered somewhat by the award presenters as they definitely were the main attractions of this event. The Reviewing officer was chief Petty Officer 1st class David Steeves, the command chief of the Royal Canadian navy. Assisting him was his wife, chief petty Officer 2nd class Tina Steeves. It was a great honor to the cadets to be entertained with their stories and their experiences in the Royal Canadian navy.

CUSTOM HOMES AND RENOVATIONS

DESIGN - BUILD

Connor Cosh a Grade 12 student played in the Football Sask Senior Bowl on Sunday May 26th @ Mosaic Stadium. Only graduating students are eligible for the Senior Bowl, and the NORTH team tryouts were in Saskatoon May 11-12. Depending on the style of football your high school plays is the team you tryout for ~ 6 man, 9 man, or 12 man.

Connor has been playing 6 man style football in Macklin since Grade 7 but also has experience playing 12 man for 3 years with the Lloydminster Red Dogs (Spring football Feb-May). Connor has said that 6 man is a harder game to play than 12 and it makes you a more well rounded player. In 6 man and if you mess up something big is typically going to happen whereas with 12 man if you mess up there's always someone close by to cover you.

Sr Bowl practices were on Friday May 24th and 25th and the big game vs the SOUTH was on Sunday. The North dominated the entire game and beat the South 78-14 breaking a scoring record. Only 18 boys made the up the team and some of the other towns representing the NORTH were: Wakaw, Hanley, Clavet, Rosthern, Hague, Carrot River, Viscount, and Aberdeen.

At the Saturday night awards ceremony Connor received the Nomination for top Linebacker of the Sr bowl. (Winner has yet to be announced). A quote from a CanAm coach/scout in the stands was "Connor looked really good today. Great position, solid tackling, and the interception was a nice exclamation point on his game".

Connor will find out in the next couple of weeks if he had made the roster for the CanAm bowl with will be held in Wakaw July 2nd-6th. That again is a 6man style game and is the Canadians vs Americans.

A HUGE Thank-You have to be given to the Macklin Jr & Sr football coaches who have guided, trained and coached Connor over the years!

Letter from the Chief

Hello Again Everyone:

Graduation weekend is coming up!!! Congratulations to all our Grade 12 Students . All your hard work and studying in high school is coming to an end. Good luck to all of you as you start the next exciting chapter of your life!!! I know the next couple of weeks involve a lot of socializing and some nights with not a lot of sleep. Make good choices. Please watch out for each other and always plan a safe ride home. I hope you all had a good long weekend!! This is the weekend that marks the beginning of the camping season and is a good time start preparing for a safe and happy summer. Remember to check your camper before you head out on your holidays. Check the tire pressures, and make sure the lug nuts are tight. Walk around the unit and make sure all the lights are working properly. Go for a drive and make sure the brake system on your truck and trailer are both working and set properly. Quick checks like this can prevent a lot of hassle during your holidays.

Saskatchewan Wildfire Management still has this area listed as extremely dry so until Mother Nature blesses us with some much needed rain we are still recommending no burning in this area.

Have a safe grad weekend all!!!

BEA FISHER PROJECT NEARS COMPLETION!

Watch for Grand Opening information coming soon

The project addresses accessibility to make delivery of our day program safer and easier for the clients. This includes making the main entrance barrier-free enabling clients to enter the building easily regardless of mobility. The project also addresses improving accessibility and safety in the kitchen and activity area by enlarging the kitchen and changing floor-covering in the activity room.

A Daily Promise

by Susan Conly

I am an early morning walker.

“Why walk so early?” Sometimes the question is asked in wonder; sometimes quite critically; the answer is simple--it is the best time of the day.

When on the farm, as I walked, I often thought of another early morning walker, Grandpa Alex Conly, who early one spring morning in 1910 began his walk across the Prairie from Evesham to Battleford, over 100 miles—no fences, no roads—to register this land for his homestead, SW18-39-26-W3rd, —“This land I’m walking on this morning!”

Many other long-ago fathers walked similar miles in those beginning years, building our province.

During my many years on the farm, while I walked this old pasture fence-line the eastern sky often glowed with the promise of a new day. Grass heavy with dew, robin calling, tentatively, checking who else was awake; answer from the pasture fence-post—meadowlark was up, too. In season, crocuses blossoming in profusion, little calves over in the shaded hollow beginning to stir, a deer on the hillside watching. Bird songs grew louder, the glow in the east brightened, the promise of a new day. Special times one cherishes on the farm. Any clear morning-sky of the year, I watched day’s leisurely coming; ‘leisurely’ as though urging us all to slow down.

Sunrise is never hurried.

I still I enjoy my morning walk—not now in Grandpa Alec’s pasture— but in the Villa Marie Park. Again, this Fathers’ Day, you and I will remember with gratitude those fathers walking early, building homesteads.

I recall a doctor friend once saying that the most important element in organizing your day was “the early morning, an unhurried time as you begin your day. Start your day on the run, and you never catch up.” Then he went on to say, “more nerves are frayed, more duodena are ulcerated by eating breakfast on the run, than by any other factor.”

Maybe it would be well to remember this, and in spite of all our frantic rushing about, sunrise, clear or clouded, ever since the day of creation, comes slowly. Time to remember that yesterday is history. Each new sunrise is a clean, fresh opportunity to get on with life.

The invitation is there with every dawn, every season. The invitation to discard the hurts and defeats of yesterday; to cherish the triumphs, to build on achievements. And most of all, the invitation to plan another day, quietly, prayerfully. Henry David Thoreau, famous essayist, poet, “An early morning walk is a blessing for the day.”

Sun is now fully up. A whole new day has dawned, full of promise, instinctively I say, “thank you, God, for this new day that never was before” --and I saw its creation.

That’s a good enough reason, I think, to be an early morning walker.

From the Bartlette's, we would like to express our deepest gratitude in all the support that this community has offered us over the past several months. It will be a long journey but having such a wonderful community behind us gives us great hope for the future. We want to thank the Nash Bash committee, Kinette's and all the volunteer's for organizing everything, as well as everyone who donated. Nash still has a year of treatments to endure but he is a strong boy and will beat this; he is a true superhero.

Thank you. #NashStrong
